May 12—Virginia Christian College, at Raleigh.

As usual, the season will open with Trinity Park, in Raleigh. Amherst, the only college team that defeated A. and M. last season, is again on the schedule. The Philadelphia Nationals defeated A. and M. 11 to 0 list year.

Manager Sigmon has secured games with four teams that A. and M. has never played baseball with, namely. Swarthmore College, of Pennsylvania. Catholic University, of Washington, D. C.; Virginia Christian College, and Maryville College, of Tennessee.

The schedule provides the usual Southern and Northern trips.

For the first time in four years Virginia Polytechnic Institute will be played on A. and M.'s home ground.

The Easter Monday game will be played, as usual, with Wake Forest. This is always one of the most hotly contested games of the season, and draws a tremendous crowd.

SIX-CLUB LEAGUE MAYBEORGANIZED

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Harrisonburg, Va., February 23.—
Harrisonburg is included in a new baseball league, which is being agitated for this part of the State. A meeting was held several days ago at Clifton Forge. The idea is to arrange a six-team circuit, consisting of Minton, Lewisburg, Covington, Clifton Forge, Staunton and Harrisonburg.

Buseball has been on the wane in this part of the State since the breaking up of the old Valley League in 1897. For a while Staunton held a high position in the old Virginia League, sending out the great Dave Fultz in the nineties, to make a national reputation for himself.

With comparatively short railroad jumps, it is believed that the proposed new circuit could be made to pay. The younger generation is baseball hungry, Institute Loses by Score of 35 to 26 in Brilliantly Played Game.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lynchburg. Va., February 23.—The Lynchburg Y. M. C. A. basketball five broke V. P. I.'s long string of victories here to-night, when the home quint won a fast and brilliantly played game by the score of 25 to 26. The game was called off yesterday by the Tech faculty, but at 6 o'clock to-night an agreement was reached for the contest, the association agreeing to all concessions asked for, even to playing both halves under collegiate rules.

The association took the lead in the scoring in the first half, but the work was nip and tuck. When the score was 3 to 5 the Techs forged ahead, and at the close of the half were ahead 16 to 12.

After few minutes of play in the second haf the score was 19 each, and officerdinger broke a finger. A little tape put him in shape, and he went hack. Then Lynchburg shot a goal and went ahead. Another goal came to the locals, and then the Techs evened up again with two beautiful goals. Both teams missed goals on a double foul, and Lynchburg then went ahead, never to be overtaken again, for the Techs scored only once more, and that was red only once more, and that was scored only once more, and that was on a foul.

Although the game was made up at 6 o'clock, there was a good sized crowd present. The play was very different from that of Tuesday night. Mr. Burke, of Washington and Lee, was the referee, and his work was satisfactory to both teams. The line-up:

Lynchburg—Jameson, Campbell, forwards: James, centre; Offterdinger, Adams, guards.

V. P. I.—W. Legge, H. Hughes, forwards: J. Hughes, centre; F. Legge, Keesling, guards.

Summary: Fouls on V. P. L. 5; on Association, 5. Goals from fouls—Campbell, 2; Legge, 4. Field goals—W. Legge, 2; J. Hughes, 4; F. Legge, 3; Keesling, 1; Campbell, 4; James, 3; Jameson, 8; Offterdinger, 1. Time of halves, twenty minutes. Referee, Mr. Burke, Washington and Lee.

James W. Sullivan left the cinder path and donned his ball-playing togs and came out for practice.

The old guard, including Hooker, the two Bigbles, Frank and Stanley, Bob White, Curtis Walker and Dutch Revelle, was on hand.

Saracino, scoker for a pay check with the Richmond team, was at the bat. Whitline, the mute catcher, was reversed and was doing the pitching.

"My, my," ejaculated the peaceful Sullivan. Then another bat was produced. Saracino decided to make it unanimous. He broke the third. "Game broken up," declared Sullivan, and the squad of local hopefuls journeyed to town.

Manager Bradley was out of town yesterday, and no office work was done.

Local bowlers will be glad to know that Whitman's leg is well, and that he will be able to go to Buffalo with The Times-Dispatch team.

If to-day is as warm as yesterday, the boys may line up for a little real baseball. Sullivan knows the gams too well to ask the men to extend themselves in such weather as we have been having.

Mr. Brown and Mr. Hogan, the two gentlemen who answer to the rather ominous soubriquets of "Knockout" and "Oneround," respectively, fought to what the more conservative critics declare to be a draw, in New York Wednesday night. The fight went the full ten rounds, with both boys fighting gamely at the finish. While some hold that Brown had the better of the argument, the unbiased hold that the bout was really a draw.

He heaved one across. Saracino girded up his loins, looked at the audience and then—he broke the first bat.

Out came another Ty Cobb, Whitline tried a curve. Saracino hit. Bat No. 2 was splintered.

Al. Kaufman has married. Naturally, as in the case of Ad. Wolgast, it was to his girlhood sweetheart. Why is it that the press agents of the fighters continue to boost that old sweetheart gag all of the time? Don't they know that if they would have their men marry a girl five seconds after meeting her it would be a much better story?

Walter Johnson, who, after holding out for several weeks before signing Jimmle McAleer's contract, finally consented to report at Hot Springs, is out in a statement that he will not pitch but twenty games during the coming season. He says that pitchers are overworked nowadays. Ye shades of the ancients!

Wonder if Walter remembers the days when a pitcher worked in the box one day, doubled in the outfield the next day, played the infield the third day, and was back in the box the day after. And they didn't get the money that is paid now.

Big leaguers who are now in the South are surprised at the weather conditions. It has been cold, very cold, south of Virginia. All of which simply emphasizes the fact that the big league teams should train in Richmond, where the weather is warm.

By the way, have you been noticing the scores which the bowlers have hung up during this week? If they keep up the work here there will be nothing to it but a big slice of the money offered by the N. B. A.

The season will begin April S. and will close the Saturday after Labor Day, the same date on which the Virginia League closes. The several parks controlled by the teams came in for some discussion, and whether four parks will be used or whether eight parks will be played upon will be left largely to the schedule committee, which must report to the board of directors, composed of the managers of the teams. Dates of postponed games, selection of umpires, settlement of all disputes, will be left to the board of arbitration.

disputes, will be left to the board of arbitration.

The following agreement was signed by each of the clubs:

We, the undersigned managers of the clubs selected to compose the Richmond Amateur Baseball League, hereby agree with each other that we will use our best efforts to promote the objects and purposes for which this league is formed.

It shall be our aim and purpose to and purposes for which this league is formed,

It shall be our aim and purpose to promote clean athletics, and to especially endeavor to make this league an honor to our city, and thereby reflect credit on ourselves.

We agree to abide by such rules and regulations as may be promulgated by the governing board of this league. We further agree not to play any team not a member of this league without the consent of the governing board.

With all of the salient details settled, and with prospects bright, it appears that the Richmond Amateur Baseball League is destined to eclipse anything of its kind ever organized in Richmond. Correct records of the men will be kept. These records will be at the disposal of any one desiring to gain information as to the ability of any one of the members of the teams composing the league.

Notwithstanding the fact that a great quantity of husiness was transacted, the deliberations of the meeting covered just one hour and a half. But remember that business was attended to every minute of the time. Now get out and work for the success of the league.

Book plays have not been as frequent on the American stage in the past two years as before, but their vogue is not over yet, as will be revealed, when Robert Edeson will appear in "Where the Trail Divides" at the Academy to-night and Saturday night. Mr. Edeson will make his initial bow as a playwright here, as he is the author of the play having taken it from Will Lillibridge's novel of the same name. It is another Indian play, and will again reveal Mr. Edeson in the role of a civilized and educated Indian. The leading feminine role will be enacted by Miss Eva Dennison, who will be remembered for her characterization of Nora O'Brien with Rose Stahl in "The Chorus Lady." Others in the cast are Cordelia McDonald, A. H. Van Buren, George W. Barnum, Shep Camp, John Prescott, Joseph Rawley, Charles Chappelle and E. M. Dresser.
